THE HERO'S TOMB
Dedicated with Military Pomp and Splendor.

THE TRIBUTE OF THE PEOPLE
All America Honors the Memory of the Dead Soldier.

President McKinley, Vice President Hobart, the Cabinet, Senators, Representatives, Jurists, Statesmen, Diplomats, Soldiers and Civilians Took Part in the Ceremonies—Fifty Thousand Soldiers, Sailors and Veterans Were in the Parade—United States and Foreign Warships Fired Salutes—The Magnificent Demonstration at Riverside Park.

New York, April 27—With military pomp and splendor, the rites of which preceded last hour before were completed today the magnificent mortuary march by the people of the land to the monument of Ulysses S. Grant. The ceremony should be at the tomb of Bostonians, the most beneficent ever held in New York, in any city, and now the scene of a grand and memorable Legion, and commanded a vast view of the general and the city. It was filled with esteemed military and civic dignitaries, as well as with a vast crowd of the city's best citizens. The ceremonies concluded by placing a gorgeous tribute of flowers on the mound, and the crowd bade farewell to the monument.
