TURBULENT LOUISIANA.

The Present Condition of Affairs Throughout the State.

The latest events in Louisiana are of the most disquieting character. The situation is grave and the danger serious. The following are the latest reports from various points in the State:

New Orleans:

The situation in New Orleans is critical. The city is under siege by a large force of Confederate troops. The situation is tense and the morale of the residents is low. The city is short of supplies and tensions are rising.

Shreveport:

The city of Shreveport is under martial law. The mayor has declared a curfew and the army has taken control of the city. The situation is tense and the residents are advised to stay indoors.

Baton Rouge:

The capital city of Louisiana is under severe pressure. The Confederate army has taken control of the city and is in the process of evacuating civilians. The morale of the residents is low and the situation is grave.

Foreign Affairs:

The European powers are closely watching the situation in Louisiana. There are reports of plans for intervention by France and Britain. The United States government is also closely monitoring the situation.

Political News:

The political situation in Louisiana is chaotic. The legislature is meeting in special session to discuss the crisis. There are reports of conflict between the governor and the legislature over the handling of the situation.

We will provide more updates as they become available.